

Sample of test

A- Select false or true of the following statements

1. Information is a collection of unprocessed data.
2. Implementation software applications is part of IT
3. retrieval of information is part of IM.
4. A significant change in information management is the decrease in the quantity and quality of information on business related issues
5. To communicate your Information Strategy effectively u don't need to involve all stakeholders.

B- Choose the right answer

Indicates how a number of information-based activities work and relate to one another, to achieve the desired objectives:

- a. Overall (Corporate)
- b. Information Strategy.
- c. Implementation plan.

Basis for Resource Allocation:

- a. POOR INTEGRATION
- b. CAPACITY ISSUES
- c. INAPPROPRIATE SYSTEMS

What are your organization's assets?

- a. Opportunities
- b. Threats
- c. Strengths

Identification of Critical Gaps;:

- a. IMPROVED CAPACITY
- b. BETTER INTEGRATION
- c. APPROPRIATE SYSTEMS

C- Answer following: :(3 Marks)

1. What are the stakeholders include?
2. How are the objectives in your Information Strategy should be?
3. What are the main categories of changes to the information environment?

D- Fill the space with correct word: :(1 Mark)

Mind , Agreements , vision , Share , People

1. If you don't want to do everything Yourselftasks with other organizations.
2. When joining a partnership, it is important to use means of formal.....
3. An Information Strategy is a deliberate and planned approach to achieving afor the future.
4. It is important to develop an organization' s Information Strategy with all the stakeholders in.....
5. The changes will especially affect four key areas:....., Content, Technology, Organization.

E- Link the equivalent words of following groups

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none">a. strategy documentb. Information auditc. Five-year pland. Activities of IMe. Options | <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. sources of policy2.Part of strategy document3. Security4. Analysis's step5. ACHIEVES ITS PURPOSE |
|--|---|